

Christopher J. Schroeck

Associate

Direct: 615.771.0104

Email: cschroeck@sutter-law.com

Christopher Schroeck brings more than a decade of experience as a defense trial attorney to the firm, both at the trial and appellate levels. His track record includes the defense of intellectual property matters, commercial disputes, and the manufacturers of various products. Chris has handled all aspects of cases—from investigation, motion practice, discovery, jury trials and appeals—and is resident in the firm's Nashville office.

Education

Boston College, B.A., 2004

University of Virginia, J.D., 2007

Associations

Tennessee Bar Association

Kentucky Bar Association

Williamson County Bar Association

Practice Areas

Commercial Litigation

Trucking & Transportation

Intellectual Property & Trademark Enforcement

Construction Law

Premises Liability Defense

Admissions

Kentucky

Tennessee

Virginia

United States District Courts

Eastern District of Tennessee

Middle District of Tennessee

Western District of Tennessee

Community

Outside of the courtroom, Chris is a dedicated volunteer with his church's youth group in Nashville

Representative Matters

Obtained summary judgment dismissing Plaintiff's negligence claims relying on violation of OSHA regulations by arguing violations were not specifically plead.

Obtained voluntary dismissal of automobile warranty case after filing a motion to compel deposition of Plaintiff's defect expert.

Obtained a defense jury verdict in suit alleging violation of noncompetition agreements and the Tennessee Uniform Trade Secrets Act by former executives at a medical products company.

Obtained defense jury verdict in breach of warranty suit against major automobile manufacturer.

Obtained summary judgment on behalf of a major school district in a "slip and fall" case alleging improper removal of ice and snow at a high school.