Isabella Simon is an Associate in the Firm's Nashville office. She is a member of the Appellate, Commercial Litigation, Construction Law, OSHA Investigations and Citations and Products Liability practice groups.

Prior to joining Sutter O'Connell, Isabella practiced as a solo practitioner in her hometown, Youngstown Ohio, covering a wide variety of civil and criminal matters. She brings unique experience to the firm, including an extensive understanding of client relations, business management, marketing, and non-profits.

Isabella is a graduate of The Ohio State University, where she obtained her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. She received her J.D. in May of 2020 from Duquesne University School of Law in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. While in law school Isabella served as the President of the Public Interest Law Association, competed on the Trial Advocacy Team, wrote for Juris Magazine, assisted the Communications Director, and was a Student Attorney for the Urban Development Practicum.

When Isabella is not in the office you can find her traveling abroad, hiking, practicing yoga, or enjoying a home cooked meal with her cats.
